In another article published in the U.S., it was alleged that "TikTok is used by some adults as well as children, but it is designed for teens. It's intended to be a fun way to make friends and stay connected with friends and family. But because it's designed for teens, the app often turns into a platform for bullying." This article was published on The Houston Chronicle.",

With all the hype that has surrounded it, TikTok is one of those things which is turning out to be bigger than we thought. We'll just have wait and see how it pans out in the long term. On this note, we can only hope that Tencent doesn't make another quick acquisition and continue with its slow growth strategy as the stock price there has taken a massive hit already in 2021 alone due to falling market valuations.", TikTok has a number of features that require them to be paid for if they are part of the package provided by a subscription video service. This includes the ability for people who have subscribed to TikTok's video service to access a number of special features as well as the ability for them not only to find out more about the videos that other users are watching on their channel but also view videos (in addition, they can also follow other users which is clearly part of being able to view other people's content). However, the most notable feature that people have criticized for being charged for is the ability to post videos to a channel (which should be free given that it is not available outside of a subscription). Some people have criticized TikTok for charging people who wish to post their own videos as well as trying to prevent users from posting any content on their platform without paying for it. The following is a screenshot of an advertisement which appears on TikTok's own website:",

In a lawsuit against Bytedance, it was alleged that "The company used the personal data to set up a database and develop artificial intelligence technology for use in its business." This lawsuit was filed by a Chinese consumer rights group against Bytedance. In an article published by Bloomberg, it was alleged that "Bytedance has collected data on what users view and click on as well as information such as user IP addresses or device IDs, according to the complaint. It's been collecting this information since 2021, the complaint said." This article was published on Bloomberg. In a lawsuit filed against Bytedance by New York Attorney General Letitia James, it was alleged that "the company used children's allegiance to specific brands in order to gain an advantage in the digital market, where children often gravitate toward one brand over another." This lawsuit was filed by New York Attorney General Letitia James against Bytedance.",

In another news article published by The Guardian, it was reported that TikTok's policy of removing potentially inappropriate content from its platform "is affecting users who uploaded videos innocently and inadvertently. A user with 1,600 followers posted a TikTok video of himself in his home and was then startled to receive an email from the company asking him to take down the video due to complaints. He said there were not any complaints but that the company may have correlated keyword searches with his account. He was not familiar with what terms may have been associated with his account.",

According to data from Sensor Tower, the total revenue generated by TikTok's apps has reached $1 billion in 2021 alone. Despite this success, up to 70% of its userbase drops out each month due to lack of engagement with other users on the platform. This rate is significantly higher than Instagram and Snapchat, where the dropout rate is much lower at around 10%.",
